

Judge #:
Book #:
Book Title:
Author:
Overall Score	Additional Questions (for tie-breaker)
	This book held my interest	I'd recommend to a friend/customer	I'd read another book by this author

Explanations for scores of 2 or below (e.g. heat level was misstated; lacks a central love story; contains an abusive relationship; persistent editing/proofing errors:

Directions:

1. Please score the book with one of the following scores: 5, 4.5, 4, 3.5, 3, 2, 1. The list in the following column gives the score meanings. If you give a book a score of 2 or below, please explain why in the space provided.
2. Books are NOT rated against one another. You may give more than one book the same score.
3. The score should be a reflection of your opinion of the book's quality.
4. Answer the three tie-breaker questions honestly.
5. If you feel you cannot judge the book fairly, please let your coordinator know IMMEDIATELY so we can re-assign the entry. Remember that the following are NOT reasons to give a book a low score.
  - LGBTQIA+ protagonists or protagonists from traditionally marginalized groups
  - More than 2 lovers (ménage)
  - A story that does not end in marriage.

Score Meanings:

5 – Keeper: This book should be on everyone's keeper shelf!	3 – Above Average: This book is well written, but I wouldn't buy this author again.
4.5 – Excellent! I couldn't put this book down.	2 – Average: This book was just 'okay' with me.
4 – Great: I'll be buying this author again.	1 – Below Average: I did not enjoy this book.
3.5 – Good: I enjoyed this book.	